

CONTENTS

1. Overview	1
Global Hotel Industry – A Review	1
Major Global Hotel Companies.....	1
Table 1: Leading Players in the Global Hotel Industry (2005): Revenues in US$ Million for InterContinental Hotels Group, Marriott International, Accor, Best Western International, Global Hyatt, Carlson Hotels Worldwide, Starwood Hotels & Resorts, Cendant Hotel Group, Hilton International, and Choice Hotels International	1
Table 2: Leading Players in the Global Hotel Industry (2005): Number of Hotels for Cendant Hotel Group, Choice Hotels International, Best Western International, Accor, InterContinental Hotels Group, Marriott International, Hilton Hotels Corp., Carlson Hotels Worldwide, and Starwood Hotels & Resorts	2
Table 3: Leading Players in the Global Hotel Industry (2005): Number of Hotel Rooms for InterContinental Hotels Group, Cendant Hotel Group, Marriott International, Accor, Choice Hotels International, Hilton Hotels Corp., Best Western International, Starwood Hotels & Resorts, and Carlson Hotels Worldwide	2
Table 4: Leading Players in the Global Hotel Industry (2005): Number of Hotels Managed by Marriott International, Extended Stay Hotels, Vantage Hospitality Group (Americas Best Value Inn), Accor, Intercontinental Hotels Group, Starwood Hotels & Resorts Worldwide, Westmont Hospitality Group, Tharaldson Enterprises, Hilton Hotels Corp., and Societe du Louvre (Starwood Capital Group)	3
Table 5: Leading Players in the Global Hotel Industry (2005): Number of Hotels Franchised for Wyndham Worldwide, Choice Hotels International, Intercontinental Hotels Group, Hilton Hotels Corp., Marriott International, Accor, Carlson Hospitality Worldwide, Golden Tulip Hospitality/THL, Global Hyatt Corp., and Tharaldson Enterprises	3
			Table 6: Leading Consortia in the Global Hotel Industry (2005): Number of Hotels for Utell/Unirez-Pegasus Solutions' Rep. Services, Synxis, Hotusa-Eurostars-Familia Hotels, Supranational Hotels, Innpoints Worldwide, Keytel S.A., Worldhotels, Leading Hotels of the World, Preferred Hotel Group, and Associated Luxury Hotels
			4
			Table 7: Leading Consortia in the Global Hotel Industry (2005): Number of Rooms for Utell/Unirez-Pegasus Solutions' Rep. Services, Synxis, Supranational Hotels, Hotusa-Eurostars-Familia Hotels, Innpoints Worldwide, Keytel S.A., Worldhotels, Leading Hotels of the World, Associated Luxury Hotels, and Preferred Hotel Group
			4
			Table 8: Global Survey of Hotels (2005): Rooms Managed for Intercontinental Hotels Group, Interstate Hotels & Resorts, Ocean Hospitalities, John Q. Hammons Hotels, Janus Hotels and Resorts, White Lodging Services, Sage Hospitality Resources, Outrigger Enterprises, and Others
			5
		Global Hotel RevPAR and Occupancy
		Rate by City	5
		Table 9: Global Hotel Industry (2006): Revenue Per Available Room (RevPAR) in US$ by Leading City – Venice, Paris, Dubai, Rome, Doha, London, Moscow, and Geneva	5
		Table 10: Global Hotel Industry (2006): Percentage Occupancy by Leading City – Brisbane, Melbourne, Dubai, Heathrow, Abu Dhabi, Hong Kong SAR, Perth, and London	6
		Hotel Food Service Industry	6
		Hotel Broadband Market	6
		2. Global Trends and Issues	6
		Growth of the Hotel Industry Below
		Expectations.....	7
		Developing Regions Spurs Up the Hotel Sector.....	7
		Rise in Business Travel Drives Up the
		Hotel Sector	7
		New Constructions Drive Up the Hotel Sector.....	7

CONTENTS

Hotel Capacity.....	8	Performance of the US Hotel Market.....	49
Hotels Invests in Amenities and Facilities.....	8	Table 14: Hotel Industry in the US (2005): Business Travelers' Daily Hotel Cost in US$ by City – New York, Boston, Washington, San Francisco, Chicago, Los Angeles, Dallas, San Jose, New Orleans, Houston, Philadelphia, Honolulu, San Diego, Providence, Santa Barbara, Seattle, Newark, Atlanta, Hartford, Columbus, New Haven, Oakland, Phoenix, Sacramento, and Fort Lauderdale.....	50
Eco-Friendly Features Drive the Hotel Industry.....	8	New York City.....	50
Importance of Internet.....	8	Performance by Segment.....	50
Position of Independent Hoteliers.....	9	Table 15: Hotel Industry in the US (2006 & 2007): Percentage Occupancy by Category – Limited-Service Hotels, Full-Service Hotels, and All Hotels.....	50
New Tourist Destinations.....	9	Table 16: Hotel Industry in the US (2005): Percentage Average Occupancy by Select City – New York City, Boston, Los Angeles, Miami, San Diego, and Minneapolis.....	51
Dearth of Staff.....	9	Table 17: Hotel Industry in the US (2005): Average Daily Rate (ADR) in US$ by Category – Limited Service Hotels, Full Service Hotels, and All Hotels.....	51
The Extended Stay Hotels Concept.....	9	Table 18: Hotel Industry in the US (2005): Mid-Price and Upscale Hotel Rooms' Charge-Per-Night in US$ by City – Nashville, Kansas City, Miami, Salt Lake City, Denver, Phoenix, Ft. Lauderdale, Sacramento, Pittsburgh, Rochester, Albany, Charlotte, Tucson, Seattle, Sarasota, Raleigh/ Durham, Hartford, San Antonio, Anaheim, Jacksonville, Columbus, Greensboro, and Las Vegas.....	51
Stay Hotels Economy Scale.....	9	Table 19: Extended Stay Hotel Industry in the US (2005): Number of Rooms Available, Rooms Undergoing Construction, and Revenue-Per-Available-Room (RevPAR) in US$.....	52
Extended Stay Hotels - An Emerging Trend in the UK.....	10	Table 20: Extended Stay Hotel Industry in the US (2005): Revenue-Per-Available Room (RevPAR) by Segment/Class – Economy, Mid- Price, and Upscale.....	52
The US Scenario.....	10
Future Prospects.....	10
3. Mergers and Acquisitions.....	10
4. Strategic Corporate Developments.....	36
5. Products/ Services/ Concept Launches.....	46
A REGIONAL MARKET PERSPECTIVE
1. United States.....	48
Leading Hotel Chains.....	48
Table 11: Leading Chains in the US Hotel Industry (2005): Number of Hotels for Holiday Inns; Ramada Inn; Marriott Hotels, Resorts and Suites; Radisson Hotels & Resorts; Hilton Hotels; Sheraton Hotels; and Hyatt Hotels.....	48
Hotel Expenditure.....	48
Table 12: Hotel Industry in the US (2004-2005): Percentage Increase in Expenditure by Category – Utility Expenses, Franchise Fees/Charges, Management Fees/Charges, Rooms Department Expenses, Property Taxes, Labor Costs/Expenses, and Insurance Costs.....	48
Marketing Expenditure.....	49
Table 13: Hotel Industry in the US (2005): Marketing Expenditure in US$ Per Available Room by Category – Conference Center, Resort, Full-Service, Limited-Service, All-Suite, Convention Hotel, Extended-Stay, and All Hotels.....	49

CONTENTS

Table 21: Extended Stay Hotel Industry in the US (2003-2005): Percentage Average Occupancy by Segment/Class – Economy, Mid-price, and Upscale	52	2. Canada	55
All-Suites Hotels	52	Canadian Hotel Industry	55
Full Service Hotel Sector.....	52	Performance, Developments and Trends in Western Canada (A Historic Review).....	55
Importance of Foodservice Operations.....	52	3. Europe	56
Table 22: Leading Hotel Chains in the US (2006): Systemwide Foodservice Sales in US$ Million for Marriott Hotels, Resorts and Suites; Hilton Hotels; Sheraton Hotels; Holiday Inn; Radisson Hotels & Resorts; Hyatt Hotels; and Ramada Inn	53	European Hotel Industry.....	56
Table 23: Leading Hotel Chains in the US (2006): Systemwide Sales Per Unit in US$ Million for Sheraton Hotels; Hilton Hotels; Hyatt Hotels; Marriott Hotels, Resorts and Suites; Radisson Hotels & Resorts; Ramada Inn; and Holiday Inn	53	ADR and RevPAR of European Hotel Industry	56
Hotels Vs. Restaurants	53	Diversification of Operations	56
Hotels and Property	53	Influence of Business Cycle	56
Table 24: Hotel Industry in the US: Number of Available Rooms, Rooms Under Construction, and Development by Company for Marriott Int'l, Hilton Hotels, Six Continents, Starwood Hotels, Choice Hotels, and Cendant	53	Influence of US Hotel Market	56
Table 25: Leading Hotel Management Companies in the US Hotel Industry (2006): Aggregate Number of Rooms Managed for Interstate Hotels & Resorts, Westmont Hospitality Group, Tharaldson Lodging, John q. Hammons Hotels, White Lodging Services, Lodgian, Pyramid Advisors, Kimpton Hotels, Innkeepers Hospitality, and The Procaccianti Group	54	Europe Vs. USA	57
Table 26: Leading Hotels in the US (2006): Sales per Room in US$ '000 for Little Palm Island Resort, Grove Isle Hotel & Spa, Ponte Verda Inn & Club, The Lodge & Club, and Ocean Key Resort & Spa	54	European Airport Hotel Market.....	57
Table 27: Hotel Industry in the US (2004-2006): Number of New Hotels and New Room Additions	54	Competitive Landscape	57
Sanitation and Viruses	54	3a. France	57
Outlook.....	54	Overview	57
		3b. Germany	58
		German Hotel Industry	58
		Developments in the Market.....	58
		Table 28: Hotel Industry in Germany (2006): Percentage Occupancy, Average Room Rate (ARR), and Revenue Per Available Room (RevPar) in Euros	58
		Table 29: Hotel Industry in Germany (2006): Percentage Occupancy by Select City – Hamburg, Dresden, Berlin, Leipzig, and Dortmund	58
		Table 30: Hotel Industry in Germany (2006): Average Room Rate (ARR) in Euros by Select City - Hamburg, Berlin, Dresden, Dortmund, and Leipzig	59
		Table 31: Hotel Industry in Germany (2006): Revenue Per Available Room (RevPar) in Euros by Select City – Hamburg, Berlin, Dresden, Leipzig, and Dortmund	59
		Competitive Landscape	59
		Role of Foreign Investors	59
		Consolidation.....	59
		Prospects	59
		Accor – Leading Player	59
		Outlook	60

CONTENTS

3c. United Kingdom	60
Hotel Industry.....	60
Table 32: Regional Hotel Industry in the UK (2005): Average Occupancy of Daily Rooms, Average Daily Room Rate Per Occupied Room, and Average Daily Room Yield Per Room	61
Overview of London Hotel Industry	61
Growth Across Provinces	61
Rising Popularity of Budget Hotels.....	61
3d. Russia	62
Growth Potential.....	62
More Three Star Hotels in Moscow	62
3e. Spain	63
Trends in Spanish Hotel Sector	63
Spanish Hotel Industry in the Recent Past.....	63
Determinants.....	63
Outlook.....	63
4. Asia	64
Asian Hotel Industry – Opportunities and Growth	64
		Table 33: Hotel Industry in Asia (2005): Percentage Breakdown of Hotel Occupancy Rates by Country – Bali, Bangkok, Beijing, Hong Kong, Kowloon, Jakarta, Kuala Lumpur, Manila, Penang, Seoul, Shanghai, Singapore, Taipei, Tokyo, and Xian	64
		4a. China	64
		China – An Attractive Tourist Destination	64
		Beijing 2008 Olympics	65
		City Hotel Market Profiles.....	65
		Beijing	65
		Performance and Developments	65
		Shanghai	66
		4b. India	66
		Overview of Hotel and Tourism Industry.....	66
		Increasing Tourist Inflows.....	66
		Increase in Domestic Tourism	66
		Growing Preference for Luxury Hotels	67
		IHCL	67
		Outlook	67

GLOBAL DIRECTORY